Conflicts of Interest & Bias

Robbins Schwartz

Conflict of Interest & Bias

Conflict of interest:

- “A situation in which the concerns or aims of two different parties or people are incompatible.”
 - Not: “I know both parties.”

Bias:

- “Prejudice in favor of or against one thing, person, or group compared with another, usually in a way considered to be unfair.”

Robbins Schwartz

How to Address Implicit Bias

- Check your implicit bias here: Harvard Implicit Bias Test
- More deliberate or conscious thinking
 - Sometimes called “Staring” (as opposed to “Blinking”)
 - This involves allowing yourself time to fully think through a scenario before coming to a decision/conclusion

Robbins Schwartz

How to Address Bias: Create a Checklist

- Create a checklist beforehand
 - For ex: A pre-made checklist of allegations to be proven/disproven
- Decision-making checklists can encourage less biased decisions; they provide an objective framework to assess your thinking¹
- Can be effective in overcoming stereotypes²
- Helps reduce the attention given to biased characteristics that may influence decision-making³

Final Review and Hypothetical

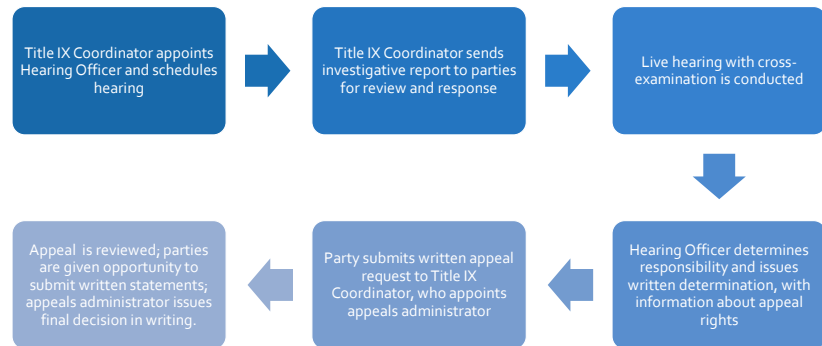

Robbins Schwartz

Final Review of Grievance Process (Pre-Hearing)

Robbins Schwartz

Final Review of Grievance Process (Hearing + Appeals)

Robbins Schwartz

Hypothetical

- Jen, a student, reports to her College advisor that a classmate, Kevin, has been making inappropriate sexual jokes and innuendos.
 - She and Kevin both attended the same virtual summer school course.
 - They were assigned to work on a project together, much of which was to be done on their own time, over Zoom, and required the exchange of personal contact information.
 - After the project was complete, Kevin allegedly called Jen and asked her out. Jen said no.
 - Jen states that Kevin began teasing her on social media and telling all of their mutual friends that Jen "is a prude."

Robbins Schwartz

Hypothetical

- The teasing became increasingly more offensive, and he allegedly began making false statements that:
 - Jen is homosexual,
 - She is afraid to date because she is a hermaphrodite, and
 - That Jen sent him sexually explicit photos.
- Jen alleges that Kevin's comments took place over the course of the summer, at various off-campus social distanced class gatherings where the instructor and other students were present.
- Most recently, Kevin and Jen both attended the same party at a house owned by the College's Theater Club, of which Jen is a member.
- At the party, Kevin (who is 21) was drinking. He tried to pressure Jen (who is 19) into drinking as well. Jen reports that Kevin stated, "Some alcohol will allow you to drop your guard, and hopefully, allow me to drop your pants."

Robbins Schwartz

Hypothetical

- Jen reports that she told Kevin he was not funny, and to leave her alone.
 - One of Jen's friends allegedly witnessed Kevin trying to pour some of his vodka into Jen's cup when she wasn't looking.
 - According to Jen's friend, when Kevin was caught, he laughed and told her to "Stop cock-blocking me."
- Jen is distraught. Kevin is enrolled in two of the same classes as Jen for the fall 2020 semester. Jen is considering dropping the classes so she will not have to interact with Kevin.
- The College advisor documents her discussion with Jen. What should the College advisor do with these allegations? Discuss.

Robbins Schwartz

Hypothetical

- Based on these facts, analyze the jurisdiction under Title IX.
- Reminder:
 - Kevin's behavior began after the completion of their virtual project. He teased her via social media.
 - Kevin's behavior continued at off-campus events where the instructor and other students were present.
 - Kevin's most recent actions were at a house owned by a College-recognized student organization during the first weekend of school.
- Do Kevin's actions constitute Title IX sexual harassment?
- Reminder: Three types of sexual harassment:
 - Quid pro quo harassment by a college employee
 - Unwelcome conduct that a reasonable person would find so severe, pervasive and objectively offensive that it denies a person equal educational access
 - Any instance of sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence or stalking

Robbins Schwartz

Hypothetical

- Jen files a formal complaint. The parties proceed to a live hearing.
 - Can Kevin's advisor ask Jen if she has ever had a sexual relationship with Kevin?
- After a full grievance process, the College's appointed Hearing Officer (who is close friends with the College advisor to whom Jen made her initial report) finds that Kevin is responsible for engaging in Title IX sexual harassment.
 - After receiving the Hearing Officer's determination, Kevin feels that the Hearing Officer had a conflict of interest that affected the outcome of the grievance process. He submits an appeal request to the Title IX Coordinator.
- What steps does the Title IX Coordinator need to take with respect to the appeal?
