

THE LEADER IN LEADERSHIP

BY ANNIE MONYOK

An overhead view of a complex industrial robotic assembly line. Two white EPSON robotic arms are positioned on either side of a central work area. The work area contains various mechanical components, including circular metal parts and rectangular assemblies. The entire scene is overlaid with a semi-transparent white filter. A yellow rectangular border frames the central text.

INTRO

MEET ANNIE.

GEORGE

HUDSON

HANK

BACON + SHOOTER

THE START.

Him: "If you could have any position on the team, which would you choose?"

Me: "Yours."

THE STUMBLE.

Me: "When will I interview with the Board of Directors?"

Him: "You don't have to. I already know their vote."

Me: Excitement

Him: "They don't want you."

The background of the image shows a group of people in a meeting room. They are silhouetted against a large window that looks out onto a cityscape. The people appear to be engaged in a discussion or collaborative work. The overall tone is professional and focused.

LEARNING LEADERSHIP

BE GOOD.

HAVE FUN.

DO YOUR BEST.

This adventure means to be the wife,
mother, daughter, sister, friend, leader,
professional, executive, and business
owner who honors these values.

BE GOOD.

It means to have integrity, to be honest, to take ownership of my mistakes.

It means to have kindness and intention in my heart.

HAVE FUN.

It means to be silly, to laugh at the chaos of life.

Leadership is important work.

Find joy and fulfillment in the stewardship.

DO YOUR BEST.

It isn't always about getting it right.

But it is always about getting it going.

A group of diverse people are gathered around a table in a meeting room, engaged in a discussion. The scene is brightly lit, likely from large windows in the background. The individuals are dressed in business-casual attire. A central text overlay, consisting of a yellow rectangular border, contains the words "LEADERSHIP IN ACTION" in a bold, black, sans-serif font. The text is centered within the frame and is the primary focus of the image.

LEADERSHIP IN ACTION

YOUR LIST.

In your journal, write down your top 5 leadership values.

WE CAN'T CONTROL THE WIND,

BUT WE CAN DIRECT THE SAILS.

Moves You Forward

Holds You Back

LEADERSHIP IN ACTION

CONTROL YOUR SAIL.

Revisit your list.

Cross out the things you can't control.

Write down 2 things you choose to do about each anchor.

THANKS!
