1. What is the difference between validity and reliability in terms of a psychological test? You can even use an example if that is helpful.

2. What is one of several problems associated with doing behavioral observations during an assessment of personality?

3. Give two differences between a structured and an unstructured interview?

4. What does the term standardization mean when referring to a standardized test?

5. When doing a psychological evaluation, the examiner needs to get something from the referring party. What is that? (Hint: This “something” helps to focus this evaluation.)

6. What is one major advantage or disadvantage of an objective personality test and please identify one?

7. What is a major advantage or disadvantage of a subjective personality test and please identify one?

8. Tell me what you know about the MMPI.

9. Tell me what you know about the Rorschach.