1. What is eugenics?
2. Why are there ethical concerns about eugenics?
3. What does the term heritability mean?
4. Define the term neuroticism.
5. Discuss the texts findings about sexual variety and sexual selection.
6. Define the term extroversion.
7. What does the term environmentality mean?
8. What is the nature of the relationship between heritability and environmentality?
9. The Nature-Nurture Debate holds up at the level of the __________ not at the level of the _____________.
10. Identify the 4 types of behavior genetics methods.
    a. ________________________________
    b. ________________________________
    c. ________________________________
    d. ________________________________
11. The two most widely studied personality traits are:
    a. ________________________________
    b. ________________________________
12. Can you name the thirds most studied?
13. What do personality psychologist mean by the terms shared environment and nonshared environment? Which accounts for the biggest differences seen between siblings?
14. What did Phineas Gage contribute to the field of psychology?
15. What is biofeedback? Can you give a couple of examples of it?
16. What were Sheldon’s three body types? In a sentence, describe each of them?
17. Name two physiological measures (a & b below) used in personality research? What part of the nervous system (c) are they actually measuring?
    a. ________________________________
    b. ________________________________
    c. ________________________________
18. Physiologically-oriented personality psychologists have studied three different physiological measures as they relate to personality. What are they? I’ll give you one to get your neurons primed!
    a. Arousability
    b. ________________________________
    c. ________________________________
19. Which three neurotransmitters account for the three dimensions of the Tridimensional Personality Model?
    a. ________________________________
    b. ________________________________
    c. ________________________________
20. What does Morningness-eveningness refer to?
21. What are the two critical tasks that our ancestors had to do for us to be here?
    a. ________________________________
    b. ________________________________
22. What is a hostile force of nature? Can you name one?
23. What is the difference between intrasexual competition and intersexual competition? (2 pts.)
24. What is an adaptation in terms of evolution? Give an example.
25. What is a byproduct of adaptation in terms of evolution? Give an example.
26. What is noise with respect to evolution? Give an example.
27. What is altruism?
28. Research on the evolutionary process has studied three evolutionary processes about the contents of human nature. Identify these three. I’ll give you the first one to prime your remaining neurons.
    a. Need to Belong
    b. ________________________________
    c. ________________________________
29. Who first wrote about the concept of natural selection? ________________________________

EXTRA CREDIT - Discuss the BIS and BAS and its significance in personality psychology.