

Psych 2006
Schizophrenia Study Questions

1. Where does the term “schizophrenia” come from?
2. What is the difference between a “positive” and a “negative” symptom?
3. Identify 5 of the “A’s” of schizophrenia.
4. Identify the 5 key symptoms of schizophrenia as listed in the DSM.
5. Identify two theories of etiology of schizophrenia.
6. What are medicines for schizophrenia called? Can you identify two of these medicines?
7. What do medicines for schizophrenia and other thought disorders actually work on?
8. What are the two symptoms of paranoid schizophrenia?
9. Identify two symptoms of the disorganized schizophrenia.
10. Identify four symptoms of catatonic schizophrenia.
11. What are the key symptoms of undifferentiated schizophrenia?
12. How is residual schizophrenia different than all forms of schizophrenia?
13. How is schizoaffective disorder different than schizophrenia?
14. What is schizophreniform disorder? How is it different than schizophrenia?
15. What is a delusional disorder? How is it different than schizophrenia?
16. How is a brief psychotic disorder different than schizophrenia and schizophreniform disorder?