1. Define the term socialization. Be clear and concise.
2. You remember from your reading and from the discussion the sad case of Genie. What happens to a child when they are raised in restricted and impoverished environment? Be clear about what can happen. You might even talk about what happened to Genie or the other examples used in the text.
3. What type of development did Piaget study and can you identify the four stages of development?
4. In what two important ways was Freud different from Erikson in their theories of development?
5. In Kohlberg’s first stage of moral development, a child makes their decisions about what to do based on what? Explain.
6. In Kohlberg’s second stage of moral development, a child makes their decisions about what to do based on what? Explain.
7. In Kohlberg’s third stage of moral development, a child makes their decisions about what to do on what principle? Explain.
8. What was the basic idea that the “baby psychologists” were trying to change when it comes to raising children? Name at least two of them.
10. How did he define the term “significant other”?
11. What is an “agent of socialization”? Can you talk about the most important agent in a child’s life?
12. Give an example of an adult agent of socialization.
13. Erikson reasoned that we all go through 8 different stages during development. What are the names of the stages and what crisis the individual need to go through in order to move to the next stage?