Adjunct Faculty Development & Resources

New Adjunct Faculty Orientation

New Adjunct Faculty Orientation is offered at the start of the fall and spring semesters, sometimes in conjunction with in-service. During orientation, new adjunct faculty will be briefed on procedures and resources, introduced to teaching at IVCC, and will have the opportunity to access and ask questions about technology resources. Information about orientation will be sent via email and mail to all new adjunct faculty.

Part-Time Faculty Handbook

The handbook provides information regarding teaching, learning, and technology, as well as links to the college catalog, student handbook, Student Services, and Business Services and Finance. Visit the handbook online: www.ivcc.edu/pthandbook

Adjunct Faculty Development Academy (AFDA)

AFDA is a program of events covering teaching and learning topics. All adjunct faculty are welcome to participate in this event. Adjunct faculty who complete the full series of events are eligible for additional compensation. Information about AFDA will be sent via email to all adjunct faculty. Visit the AFDA website for more information: www.ivcc.edu/afda

Center for Excellence in Teaching, Learning, & Assessment (CETLA)

CETLA is a comprehensive one-stop support shop for all IVCC faculty. CETLA is located in room 321 in the E building. The space offers all faculty access to a copier, printer, computers, and the CETLA staff who can assist with any instructional need. CETLA is staffed Monday through Friday and faculty are welcome to access CETLA if staff are not present; use your IVCC ID to unlock the door. Visit the CETLA website: www.ivcc.edu/cetla

Learning Resources

The Learning Resources division supports students, faculty, staff, and the community through the departments listed on the left. All faculty are encouraged to collaborate with and seek support from Learning Resources. For assistance, connect directly with a department coordinator, or contact the division office by calling 815-224-0462.
