COURSE DESCRIPTION

ENG 1002 expands on rhetorical skills from ENG 1001 as students add complexity and deeper analysis to their writing with an even stronger emphasis on finding, evaluating, and synthesizing information, especially scholarly works. The course focuses on ethical practices, including documenting source material, with an increased emphasis on critical reading skills and information literacy, including digital literacy and digital writing tools. Students' writing, including the academic research paper, will be based on reading and analyzing a variety of texts on various topics. Writing assignments may also include multi-modal projects beyond the traditional essay. For outcomes shared by ENG 1001 and 1002, students are expected to demonstrate a more sophisticated level of understanding and ability in ENG 1002. Credit Hours: 3. Division: Humanities, Fine Arts, and Social Sciences. IAI Code: C1 901R. Prerequisite: Completion of ENG 1001 or other appropriate assessment. For IAI transfer credit student must have earned a C or better in ENG 1001.

EXPECTED LEARNING OUTCOMES

1. Read a variety of texts with understanding and appreciation.
2. Use invention as a part of the writing process, especially when directed for a communicative purpose.
3. Organize and develop ideas effectively and logically in essays.
4. Develop effective, logical, and well-supported arguments.
5. Express ideas consistently and appropriately for task and audience.
6. Strengthen essays through the revision process.
7. Demonstrate an understanding of research methods, documentation, plagiarism, and source credibility.

This course also addresses the following IVCC institutional learning outcomes: communication—communicate effectively; inquiry—apply critical, logical, creative, aesthetic, or quantitative analytical reasoning to formulate a judgment or conclusion; and responsibility—recognize how personal choices affect self and society.

FORMAL GRADED WRITING (800 POINTS)

Research Proposal 150 points, 3 pages	Research Paper 400 points, 7.5 pages, plus Works Cited	Analysis Essay 250 points, 3.5 pages, plus Works Cited
---	--	--

You are required to submit final drafts of all essays as attached files through Brightspace. Submitting the assignments through Brightspace also submits them automatically to Turnitin to check for plagiarism and use of artificial intelligence (AI), such as ChatGTP. Final drafts must be submitted by the end of the day (midnight) on their due dates. The late penalty for final drafts will be 5% for each 24-hour period, starting at the due date and time. Specific due dates and times for rewrites of the Research Proposal and Research Paper will be announced. The Research Proposal rewrite is required if the original final draft grade is a C+ or below. The final grades for the Research Proposal and Research Paper will be the average of the original and rewrite grades for each assignment. The rewrites must be submitted through Brightspace by the end of the day (midnight) on the due dates, with the same 5% late penalty applied for each 24-hour period. You will not have an opportunity to rewrite the Analysis Essay.

Your essays will be graded according to the IVCC English Department grading standards and the following scale:

A+ 97-100%	B+ 87-89%	C+ 77-79%	D+ 67-69%	F 0-59%
A 94-96%	B 84-86%	C 74-76%	D 64-66%
A- 90-93%	B- 80-83%	C- 70-73%	D- 60-63%

Other Important Notes:

- Consistent with IVCC's transfer agreement with other state colleges and universities (Illinois Articulation Initiative), a student who earns a failing grade on the Research Paper cannot earn higher than a D in the course; in addition, a student must earn at least a C in the course for it to transfer.
- You must submit all three formal graded writing assignments and the required Research Proposal rewrite (if applicable) to pass this course (though doing so does not guarantee a passing grade); in addition, in the case of consistently below-average writing (D or F level), I reserve the right to base your course grade solely upon the quality of your formal graded writing assignments.
- Essays submitted through Brightspace that cannot be opened because of technical problems may still be considered late. Instructions will be provided for submitting through Brightspace, and it is then your responsibility to make sure your files have been submitted correctly and can be opened from Brightspace.

ESSAY DRAFTS (75 POINTS)

Because we will be emphasizing the whole writing process, including invention and rewriting, you will be required to submit drafts of your essays before submitting final drafts for grading. To earn full credit, each draft must be typed, meet the minimum essay length requirement (plus a Works Cited page when required), and be submitted by the due date and time through Brightspace. You also may be asked to provide a printed copy of drafts for in-class workshops. An incomplete draft will earn only partial credit. A late draft submitted within 24 hours of the due date and time will earn half the assigned credit. Any draft submitted more than 24 hours late will earn no credit. You are expected to revise and edit your drafts thoroughly and carefully before submitting them as final drafts for grading. In addition to participating in class workshops, discussing your drafts with me and utilizing the Writing Center are excellent strategies.

OTHER ASSIGNMENTS (125 POINTS)

Other assignments may include discussion questions, grammar exercises, quizzes, group assignments, and so forth. These assignments must be submitted in the required format by the specified due date and time to receive full credit. Some of these assignments may be completed only in class when they are assigned, including quizzes, and may not be made up. All other assignments submitted within 24 hours of the due date and time will earn half the assigned credit (no points if received more than 24 hours late).

MAKE-UP POLICY (EXTRA CREDIT)

You may earn back missed points by reading a short story that you find online (one that we did not read or discuss in class in any way) and type a one-page, double-spaced summary/critique of that story. Your summary should include the author, title, the actual link to the story, a plot summary, and the names of main characters. Your critique should be what you liked/disliked, what you learned, what you found interesting, and/or anything else that shows me you thought about the story. Your writing must be your own, original work and ideas. Of course, any submission that contains plagiarism will not earn any points. Your summaries/critiques do not need to be in MLA format or use a formal style (using "I" is acceptable), but they should be typed and use your best writing. As long as they are written carefully and thoroughly (and are a full page long), you will earn 10 points for each one, up to three submissions total, with a maximum of 30 points. Submit your extra credit as attached files through Brightspace. Extra credit will only be accepted through the end of the day (midnight) on the date of our final class meeting before our final exam period.

ATTENDANCE POLICY

Regular attendance is important to passing this course. When you are absent, you are responsible for what is covered in class and for all assignments, regardless of why you are absent. I do not penalize you directly for missing class, but being absent more than a few times almost certainly will lower your grade because of missed material and assignments. Because this class is face-to-face, there is no Zoom option for attending class and no recording of class. If you have two or fewer absences for the entire semester and consistently meet the Participation and Classroom Expectations below, you may replace the original Research Paper grade with the rewrite grade, rather than averaging it with the original grade.

PARTICIPATION AND CLASSROOM EXPECTATIONS

Your participation in this class not only affects your learning, but that of your fellow students. At all times, your participation and actions should demonstrate respect for the class, your classmates, and the instructor, and they may affect your class grade if it is "borderline" at the end of the semester. In addition to the other course requirements, you are expected to participate in all course activities, including the following:

- Viewing assigned PowerPoints and other presentations
- Completing all reading assignments
- Reading and responding to one another's writing
- Contributing to class and group discussions
- Collaborating with other students
- Submitting all assignments on time (If an absence or other circumstance prevents you from submitting an assignment on time, you need to contact me as soon as possible, ideally before the assignment is due, to request an extension. Doing so does not guarantee an extension, which will depend on when you contacted me, the specific circumstances, and possibly documentation, such as a doctor's note.)
- Exhibiting professional and respectful behavior

To give everyone an equal opportunity to learn, it's vital that your participation and actions during class contribute to an effective learning environment. The following activities detract from such an environment and will not be tolerated:

- Arriving to class late, leaving and coming back during class, or leaving class early
- Checking e-mail, playing online games, or visiting any non-course websites
- Using the printer during class presentations or discussion
- Consistent and distracting use of your phone during class, such as unnecessary texting, etc.
- Logging into or studying for other courses, conversation or any other activity unrelated to class

I'll check Brightspace and my e-mail each weekday that IVCC is open and possibly other days, depending on assignments, questions, etc. I'll try to respond to questions within 24 hours during the week and no later than on Monday for questions sent to me over the weekend. My goal is to return graded assignments to you within one to two weeks after their due dates, if not sooner.

OUT-OF-CLASS INSTRUCTION AND ASSISTANCE

Please take advantage of my office hours and my availability before and after class to talk to me about a specific writing assignment or the class in general. I'm available outside of class, and I'm pleased to help you with the class in any way I reasonably can. If necessary, we can arrange to meet at other than my scheduled office hours, either in person or through Zoom. Get your money's worth out of your instructors, your classes, and the other services IVCC offers its students.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

This course and all the work you submit for it are subject to IVCC's Academic Integrity Policy, which is available in the current IVCC Student Handbook. Everything that you submit for this class must be your own work. If any of your work includes any material from a source, you must give full credit to the source (that material must be fully documented).

Submitting work that is not your own and failing to document source material are both plagiarism, a form of cheating. Unless otherwise noted for a specific assignment, use of artificial intelligence (AI), such as ChatGPT, to complete an assignment is considered cheating in this course, as well. Plagiarism and cheating in general can destroy your credibility as a writer and are grounds for failing an assignment in this course and/or the entire course. In addition, you are not allowed to submit work that you completed prior to this class or are working on for another class (for example, for another college course or in high school) without my prior approval. Please discuss with me any concerns you have about these issues.

WITHDRAWAL POLICY

You may withdraw from this course through April 9. Students have the ability to initiate a withdrawal from classes. By completing the form in the Records Office or through the form located within WebAdvisor, you are authorizing IVCC to remove you from the course. Entering your student ID number serves as your electronic signature. IVCC has the right to rescind a withdrawal in cases of academic dishonesty or at the instructor's discretion. Students should be aware of the impact of a withdrawal on full-time status for insurance purposes and for financial aid. It is highly recommended that students meet with their instructor or with a counselor before withdrawing from a class to discuss if a withdrawal is the best course of action for that particular student. More information is available at the IVCC Records website.

WRITING CENTER

The IVCC Writing Center offers free, unlimited, one-on-one tutoring for students in any class at any stage of their writing process. The Writing Center staff, which includes faculty and student tutors, is happy to assist students in understanding assignments, brainstorming topics, organizing and developing ideas, and revising and editing drafts.
