The Open Source revolution that changed the software industry is happening now globally in education. Software users need tools and services that wrap around the free content.

Faculty and students need tools and services to unlock the power of Open Educational Resources.

panOpen provides the platform that enables schools to discover, adapt, and use Open Educational Resources.
Transforming a commercial textbook into a 21st century open source learning tool
Replacing a $75 closed English grammar book with a $10 open & custom resource for 10,000 students a year
Revenue Neutral - Major Cost Savings

Students save over 80% with panOpen
