Remaining entitlement and delimiting date can be found on your most recent Certificate of Eligibility, through the W.A.V.E. system (if Chapter 30 or 1606) or check vets.gov.

How many months and days of entitlement do you have remaining? _____ months _____ days

What is your delimiting date? _____ (last date of eligibility)

1. I understand that all classes I take must be required courses towards my declared degree or certificate objective.
2. Chapter 33 (Post 9/11) eligibility is based on 'rate of pursuit' and to qualify for any portion of the monthly housing allowance I must be enrolled more than ½ time. (At least 7 credit hours for a standard 16 week semester.)
3. I understand that changes to my schedule may cause my VA benefits to be cancelled, postponed, or change the amount of money that I am eligible to receive and I must notify the IVCC Veterans Services Office promptly upon such changes.
4. I understand that I must notify the IVCC Veterans Services Office if I withdraw from any of my classes and that withdrawing may result in an overpayment of VA benefits already received. I will be responsible for refunding the VA directly upon notification of any overpayment.
5. I understand that I must meet the Financial Aid & Veterans Standards of Academic Progress requirements in order to receive any VA benefits. The Financial Aid & Veterans Standards of Academic Progress Policy is listed on the IVCC/Financial Aid web page, in the College Catalog, and is available in the Financial Aid Office.
6. I understand I must contact the cashier on or before the tuition due date to have my classes held. (Chapters 31 and 33 are the only chapters that provide for direct tuition payment.)
