

Creating links to articles in IVCC library databases

Updated March 18, 2014

Faculty and students can create links to articles, ebooks, ebook chapters, videos, or video segments in many of the IVCC library databases. These links can be displayed on the faculty/class web page, in Blackboard, or in wikis, thus giving other students immediate access to the information without having to perform a search. If a student is off-campus, he/she will only be prompted for their IVCC ID number and last name to view these resources.

The following instructions are for creating persistent links using IVCC's proxy server EZproxy. The proxy server will authenticate any faculty, staff, or student and allow them to use the IVCC databases from off-campus and view specific resources to which links have been created.

Presently, there are instructions for creating persistent links to articles/films/film clips in the following databases:

- Access World News
- AJN through OVID
- Alexander Street Press Video Collection
- EBSCOhost
- Films on Demand
- Gale Virtual Reference Library
- Gale – Literature Criticism Online
- JSTOR
- LexisNexis
- ProQuest and PsycARTICLES

If you use any of the other databases and would like the library to explore article linking for them, please contact Joanne Jalley x237.

Access World News instructions:

From the hit list display the full-text of the article you wish to create a link to.

Scroll to the bottom of the article.

Located under the words "To Bookmark this article, right click on the link below, and copy the link location" is the underlined article title. Right click on the underlined article title.

Click "Copy Shortcut" from the menu if you are using Internet Explorer or click on "Copy Link Location" if you are using Mozilla Firefox browser. The link will not display but will be copied to your clipboard.

The screenshot shows the NewsBank website interface. At the top, there is a blue header with the NewsBank logo, a language dropdown set to "English", and a link for "Other NewsBank Products" with a "Login" button. Below the header, the page title is "Access World News". The main content area features a navigation bar with "Back To Results", "Previous", "Article 1 of 24", "Next", and "Save this Article" with a checkbox. The article title is "The human fighters against emerald ash borers enlisted the help of wasps." Below the title, it says "NewsTribune (La Salle, IL) - Tuesday, June 28, 2011", "Readability: 8-12 grade level (Lexile: 1100L)", and "Author: By Jeff Dankert NewsTribune Repo". The article text begins with "The human fighters against emerald ash borers enlisted the help of wasps." and "Parasitic wasps are the natural enemies of the ash borer in China. They were reared and released in". On the right side, there is a "Related Articles" section with a "Tell us what you think..." box and two article links: "Endangered and Threatened Wildlife and Plants: Two..." and "$52 MILLION STATE PLAN WOULD FIGHT WOULD FIGHT CANKER".

To bookmark this article, right-click on the link below, and copy the link location.

Abstract

Encouraging nurses to go back to school can augment this workforce.

In 1980 there were 219 public health nurses per 100,000 people; by 2000 this number had dropped to 158 per 100,000, according to a 2008 report by the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation. Fewer nurses are entering this field even as their services are in greater demand. Last year's Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act and Health Care and Education Reconciliation Act extend the provision of prevention and wellness services that are often provided by public health nurses. In light of a predicted general shortage...

Alexander Street Press Video Collection instructions:

ASP (Alexander Street Press) allows the user to create links to videos or to clips from within a video to share.

The library has access to over 6,000 videos from the following collections:

- Alexander Street Press American History in Video
- Alexander Street Press Criminal Justice and Public Safety in Video
- Alexander Street Press Education in Video
- Alexander Street Press Nursing Education in Video
- Alexander Street Press Theatre in Video
- Alexander Street Press World History in Video

Click the Embed/Link under the photo.

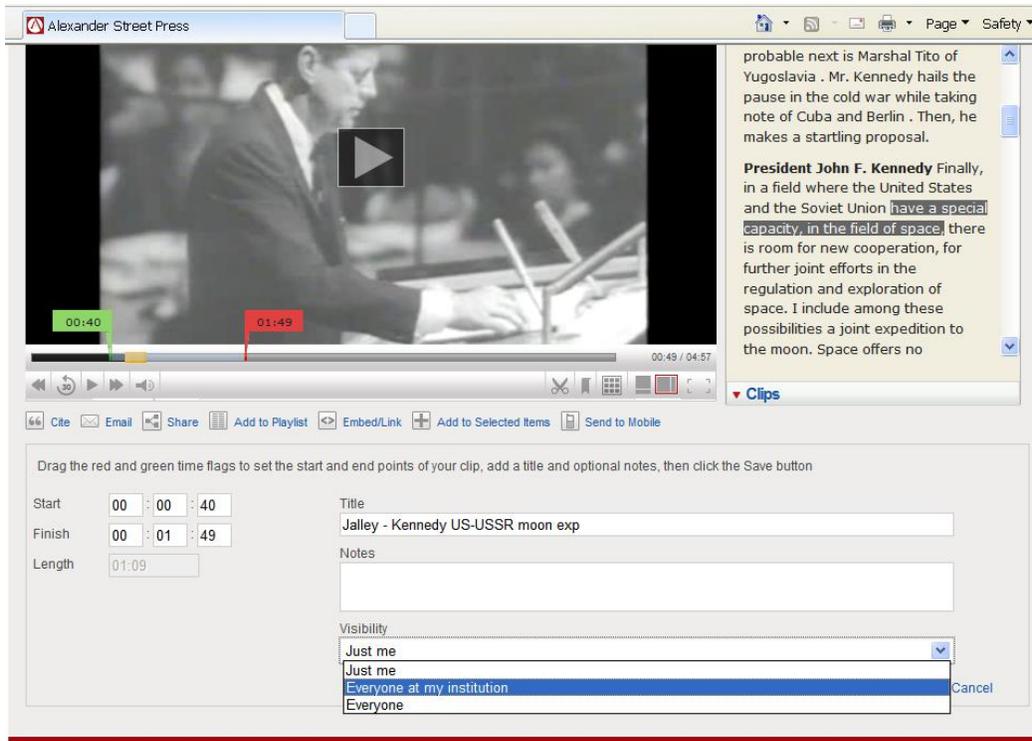

To link to the video, copy and paste the link provided.

Add the EZproxy URL BEFORE the video URL.
The proxy server URL is: <http://ezproxy.ivcc.edu:2048/login?url=>

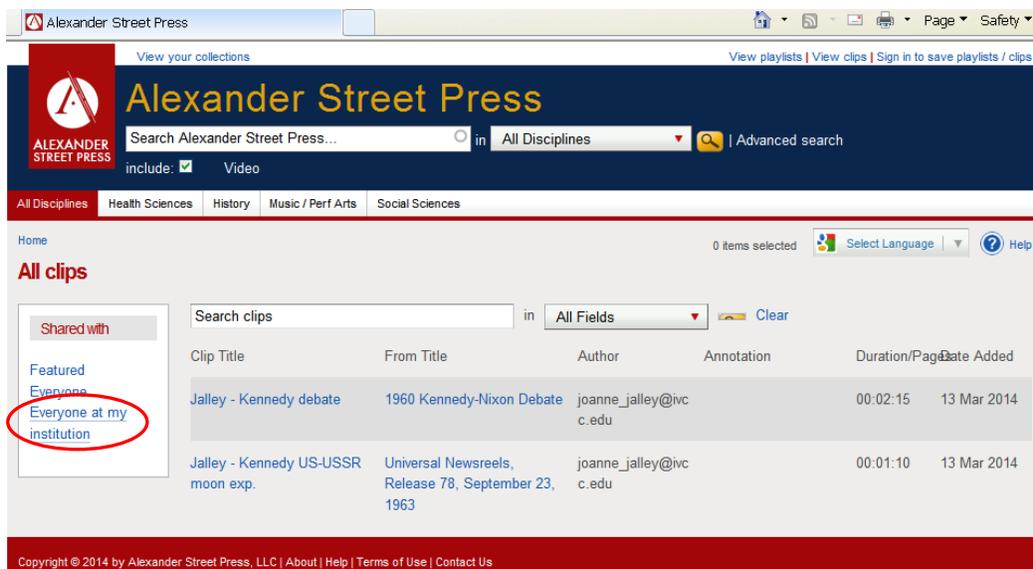

To create a clip of a specific section of a video, click the scissor icon under the video. Drag the red and green flags to the start and end points of your clip. Fill in the title box with a title of your choosing. Select the appropriate option from the dropdown menu for Visibility. If you wish to bookmark a segment to have ready to show in class, you could select the Visibility option of 'Just Me'. If you wish to assign a clip for your students to watch, select the Visibility option of 'Everyone at my institution'. If you choose to use this option it is suggested you use a naming convention to identify your clips, such as 'Jalley – Kennedy US-USSR moon exp' for ease of retrieval by users.

If students are on-campus they will not need to login to see the list of shared film clips. By going to any of the Alexander Street Video Collection modules, click on the 'View Clips' link at the top.

From the next screen click on 'Everyone at my institution'. The list that is generated will include only clips created by IVCC users. Click on the 'Clip Title' to view the clip.

EBSCOhost instructions:

Perform your search in any of the EBSCOhost databases.

From the hit list display the citation for the full-text article you wish to create a link to.

In the column to the right of the citation click Permalink.

LENGTH: 1368 words

WILLIAMSTOWN, Mass. -- The whinny of the paper shredder into which a fate-changing letter is dispatched inspires startled laughter in the Williamstown Theater Festival's production of "A Doll's House," starring Lily Rabe as the theater's most famous door slammer, Nora Helmer.
