

EXAMPLE B

Citing Gale resources for content written specifically for the Gale series.

This tutorial shows how to cite resources for content written specifically for the Gale series. NoodleTools screenshots are included.

Select Create a new citation to get started. If you are using the online version, select Database and you will be prompted for information about the online database.

The screenshot shows the 'Create new citation' dialog box in NoodleTools. The 'Where is it?' dropdown is set to 'Database'. The 'What is it?' dropdown is set to 'Reference Source'. A table of citation types is visible, with 'Reference Source' highlighted in red. The table lists various citation types and their corresponding media types.

Where is it?	What is it?	Media Type
